WILL COUNTY WORKFORCE SERVICES TO HOST JOB SEARCH BOOT CAMP

JOLIET, Illinois – The Will County Workforce Services Division and Joliet Junior College will be hosting a Job Search Boot Camp from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Weds. March 24 at the Joliet Junior College Renaissance Center Ballroom, located at 214 N. Ottawa Street in Joliet.

The boot camp is designed to help Will County residents who are seeking employment with resume writing, interview skills, and other job search techniques. There is no cost to Will County residents.

Human resource professionals will be on hand to review job seekers' resumes and offer suggestions to make their resumes competitive and professional. Attendees are encouraged to bring a current copy of their resume, in either hard copy or electronic form. Changes can be made using the center's computers.

Workshops on how to begin a job search and interviewing skills will be offered at 10:30am, 11:30am, 12:30pm, 1:30pm and 2:30pm. Seating is limited and available on a first come first served basis. Tickets for both workshops will be available in the ballroom of the Renaissance Center.

The Clothes 4 Work Clothing Closet will be open for job seekers who are in need of appropriate clothing for a job interview.

Joliet Junior College will provide information about available courses, financial aid, and special classes for those over 50 who are seeking employment or interested in taking classes at the college.

Staff members of the Workforce Services Division will be available throughout the day to assist residents with resumes, online job searches, and will host an open computer lab to assist with employment search activities.
